

Mr. Winkler, who is a traveling man for a large drug house in Philadelphia, and whose territory embraces the Pittsburgh district, has with his wife and daughter been visiting at the home of Mrs. Winkler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Birmingham, corner of Eleventh and Second streets.

Sunday night the parents put the child to bed about 9 o'clock, and then went down stairs. In a few minutes they heard the little one crying, and adults Dr. Rank found that the little one was beyond help and although he did everything possible for her, she died in one hour.

At this time it has not been fully determined whether the remains of the child will be taken to Pittsburgh for interment. In case it is decided to bury the body here, the funeral will probably be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

NEWARK WON TWO OUT OF THREE FROM THE ROSS COUNTY BABES

A crowd of fifteen hundred enthusiastic fans witnessed the game at Wehrle Park yesterday. The Molders taking the Chillicothe Babes into camp by a score of 6 to 3. The game was full of thrills, one of these kind that make you get up and take notice.

After commanding a lead of three runs until the eighth the visitors landed on Goshorn and pounded him for six hits, resulting in four runs and giving them a lead of one until the ninth when the Molders tied it up and made the ninth just a little more interesting. Then came the tenth when Kelly, the first man up, singled and a few who always look on the dark side of everything began singing "Good bye old ball game." Goshorn settled and struck out Wolf, who the two Indians before had doubled and singled, and Foutz came up and hit into a double play. A sigh of relief was heard and it was then up to the home boys to show their true metal and annex the scalps of the Ross county warriors.

Rudolph was the boy that started the thing by hitting over Wolf's head for a safety. McConnell sacrificed him and Blue helped pinch things by singling the pellet good and true and Carlton scored the winning run by dropping one over the second base.

The game was interesting not only on account of a number of sensational plays, but because it was a slugfests match from start to finish. The majority of fans like to see the ball hit out and that is just what happened yesterday.

Winkley Argued With the Ump.

pretty exhibition of the inside work so necessary to win when with a base runner at third and one at second they retired the side on an attempted double steal.

As stated above the game was full of thrills and there is no doubt but that the large crowd was satisfied with the exhibition even though it was a little ragged. It is true that there will be some fault finding by those who like the hit and run column to show up small and the game to go without a wobble, but we won, so let's forget the shortcomings and all pull together for a majority of the games yet to come.

Following is a description of the runs: Newark counted from the wire. Baggan was the first up and died out to the left guard. Newham hit for a double and Wrigley singled. The Connell tripled and then came Blue with a safety. Carlton hit into a double. Three runs.

The visitors scored first in the third when McCall singled and was sacrificed by Ahern. Owens went down at the initial bag and Wrigley doubled. Whalen singled, but Wrigley could get no further than third and the side was retired when Reilly was tagged out on an infield hit to Goshorn. One run.

The locals annexed another in the seventh when Harold hit for a double and immediately stole third. Prysock fled out, Goshorn died at first and Baggan singled. Newham following, died at first. One run.

Then came the terrible eighth when the visitors forged ahead. Goshorn, who had been going good, weakened, and it looked after the slaughter was over as if the visitors would be the victors. Owens started with a safety and immediately pliffed. Wrigley scored him with a single to left center. Whalen died at first. Reilly and Kelley and Wolf each singled in turn and things were indeed blue for four runs had crossed the rubber with Wolf perched snugly on second after Foutz had fled to deep right. McCall then hit safely to right and a pretty peg by one Mr. McConnell saved the day when Blue received the ball in time to tag Wolf out at the plate. Four runs.

The home boys tied the score in the ninth. Harold led off with a single. Prysock following went down at first and Goshorn fled out to Wolf. Everybody made a rush for the exits, but they were a little previous for one Mr. Baggan was at the bat. He rapped out a beaut, stinging the pellet square on the nose for a double and Harold romped home with the score tied. The game. There was nothing more doing for Newham fled out to Whalen.

Things were mighty interesting and the crowd was on the tip-toe of expectancy. Kelly, the first man up, hit safe and true and a groan went up. Wolf breezed and Foutz hit down to Prysock for a double, the second sack guardian throwing to Newham who covered and tossed the ball to Carlton, retiring Foutz.

In the tenth for the locals Rudolph was the first up and singled. McConnell sacrificed him and Blue advanced him to third with a safety and Carlton scored his with a nice hit to center and the game was over, Newark nosing out by a run. The score:

SATURDAY'S GAME.
The Chillicothe Babes won the second game of the present series at Wehrle Park, Saturday afternoon, after the Molders had it safely tucked away. It was a pitchers' battle throughout and a pretty exhibition of the national sport until the error bug began working and even at that the locals gave their visiting brothers a hard tussle and came near landing a winner. It is the old, old story, if—what's the use, it's the fortune of baseball and all teams experience the same old tough luck story. Chillicothe won and they deserve the credit. It took eleven innings to decide the contest and it was a pretty one throughout until the last inning.

The first run was made by the locals in the seventh. Carlton, the first man up, smashed out a single to the center garden and Harold sacrificed, sending him to second. Prysock smashed out a double and Carlton trotted home. Taylor and Baggan both died at first.

The visitors counted in the eighth. After Wrigley fled out, Whalen knocking an easy one into Taylor's mitts, but it bounded out and rolled over to the third base line and the batter landed safe on first. He reached second when Reilly went out at first and scored on Kelley's single. Baggan dropped Wolf's fly, but Wiley froze on to one by Foutz and there was nothing further doing. Thus it will be seen that if Taylor had froze onto Whalen's—but let's forget it.

The score was tied and there was nothing further doing until the eleventh when the Babes won out thusly: Wolf, the first man up, died at first, and Foutz following called in the error bug and started him to working overtime. He popped to Prysock who ran in on the ball and missed it. If he had only taken a step backwards the teams might have been playing until dark. McCall came up and sent one out to Baggan. The lad dropped the second one of the day and Taylor took a hand and made it three straight by wobbling on Grandel's infield hit. Foutz scored and Owens and Wrigley both died at first. There was nothing doing for the locals and the Babes were credited with a game that should have been easily won by the local boys. The score:

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT BLOOD HUMORS

The intimate relation of the skin to the blood is shown by the fact that impurities or poisons of any character are usually manifested in some form on the outer cuticle. The germs of fever in the blood will cause a flushing and redness of the skin; in like manner the uric acid of Rheumatism will cause inflammation, while malarious poison produces a sallow and chalky hue; and so with other impurities.

The skin is a real barometer to the blood, and the character of impurity infecting the circulation is determined by the effects on the outer tissue. Humors in the blood produce what we term in general, Skin Diseases. These are divided into several classes known as Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Pimples, Rash, etc., and each of these troubles indicate the presence of humors or acids in the circulation. The humors and acids by their irritating nature cause the delicate flesh just beneath the outer skin to ulcerate and discharge, and soon the skin is disfigured with eruptions which often are torturing to the sufferer because of soreness or intense itching. External treatment cannot cure an internal trouble, and for this reason salves, washes, lotions, etc., can have no curative effect on skin diseases. Such treatment can perhaps soothe, and make the irritated flesh more comfortable, but the real cause must be removed by purifying the blood before skin trouble can be cured.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by purifying the blood and removing the humors from the circulation. It neutralizes all impure acids, cools the over-heated blood, builds it up to normal strength, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin instead of being irritated by acid impurities and humors, is nourished, soothed and softened by pure, rich blood. Look on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

BUTTER-KRUST

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

It is rumored that the condition of the Milkmaids' Association will be found to be most flourishing when the maids meet in convention in the high school auditorium Monday evening, by request of the Juvenile Aid Society. The chairman, Miss Florence Meyers; the secretary, Miss Kate Brooks; and the treasurer, Miss Davy Snyder, all report affairs to be in a most satisfactory state.

The audience will learn many new and surprising things from the 22 milkmaids, who, presenting themselves as representatives from as many widely separated states, by their individual contributions to the science of the dairy, will make a most valuable and unique addition to our present authorities on the subject. The appearance of the best cow in the world upon the stage will question as to which is the best, settle, once and for all, the vexed question of the dairy.

The program will be varied by music from Stuber's orchestra, and previous to the convention proper, vocal solos will be rendered by Mrs. Roe and Mr. Downey; violin selections by Miss Howard and Mr. Parker; and dramatic selections by Mr. George Hamilton.

Mrs. L. P. Sisson, who is to leave Newark soon, to make her home in Harvey Hill, will be at the W. C. T. U. rest room Thursday, May 18, and will be pleased to have her friends call between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Misses Elizabeth Sohn and Ruth Winternute went to Cambridge at noon today to remain until Tuesday. Misses Sohn and Winternute will be guests at a Phi Sigma Chi dance given this evening.

The alumni members of the Beta Theta Phi fraternity residing in Columbus will begin a series of luncheons Wednesday of this week at the Neil House. Luncheons will be held weekly on Wednesday for an indefinite time.

Misses Dolores Frederick and Nina Harris and Madames Pearl Johnson and May Paige were guests of Mrs. Edna Evans at Newark to supper one day this week. C. L. McCracken took the party down in his automobile. —Johnstown Independent.

Miss Helen Foerster of Dakota avenue entertains Tuesday for Miss Florence Moore, a bride-to-be. Misses Florence Murray and Agnes Clarke entertain for Miss Moore with a luncheon at the Southern Hotel Wednesday. Curtis C. Latimer will entertain Thursday with a luncheon and Mrs. William Acord gives an afternoon affair for the bride-elect Friday. Miss Marguerite Plato of Newark will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Moore and Mr. Francis Davies, May 24, and Mr. Chester Davies will be best man. —State Journal.

Rev. Edward Jasper Converse, who has charge of the Congregational churches at Lock and Croton, Licking county, is to be married in June to Miss May Rowlen of Canton, and will bring his bride to live in Columbus. Rev. Mr. Converse, who is a son of Mrs. Lucy Converse, of 59 West Fourth avenue, was formerly assistant to Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden. —State Journal.

Miss Kathryn Hoover was pleasantly surprised by a number of her little friends at her home in South Morris street Monday evening, it being her eleventh birthday anniversary. Miss Kathryn received many beautiful presents. The evening was spent in music and games and at 6 o'clock a dainty lunch was served. Those who surprised Miss Kathryn were Ruth Nutter, Hilda Smith, Helen Willey, Helen Himes, Agnes Sibring, Elizabeth Fenneken, Helen Hoover, Sarah Peters, Easter Clark, Corinne Powell, Gladys Fenneken, Bernice Procter, Helen Wilson, Josephine Yost, Mary Long, Lorine Chenoweth, Dorothy Glenn, Pearl Hoover and Kathryn Hoover. The guests departed at a late hour, wishing Miss Kathryn many more such happy birthdays.

The wedding of Mr. Grove Montgomery of this city, and Miss Bertha Young of Columbus will be solemnized in the Presbyterian church at Columbus Tuesday evening. A number of Newark people will attend the wedding.

The Kudrila Klub was entertained at the home of Mrs. Delbert Hankinson in Buckingham street on Friday evening. The hours were spent in sewing and a delicious luncheon was served. The guests were Miss McLean, Mae Lamp, Nannie Johnson, Mr. Dora Frush, Mr. Delbert Hankinson.

The next meeting will be May 26 with Miss Dorothy Sapp.

The spring festival which the Engwerson Choral society will present in Granville May 18 and 19, will be an affair of large and significant proportions. Besides the soloists, the St. Paul Symphony orchestra, Walter H. Rothwell, conductor, is a great attraction. There are 50 players in the orchestra, and it is said to be one of the best orchestras in the country. The St. Paul Orchestra is supported by public spirited citizens of that enterprising western metropolis, who contribute $50,000 (fifty thousand) dollars a year for the maintenance of their orchestra. Its personnel comprises picked players of this country and Europe, who, under the magnetic direction of one of the world's great conductors, have attained a reputation for artistic achievements second to none.

The soloists are: Madame Elizabeth Rothwell-Wolff, soprano; Irene Armstrong, soprano; Louise Barnolt, contralto; George Harris, Jr., tenor; Wilmet Goodwin, baritone; Emil Sturmer, violin.

The local artists in the Engwerson Choral society are: Miss Rose, soprano; Miss Chrysler, mezzo soprano; Miss Benedict, organist; Mr. Rahb, basso and Mr. Eschmann, pianist. The choral work given will be Debussy's beautiful cantata, "The Blessed Damosel," Grieg's "Landshifting" and Haydn's "Creation." There will be many patrons from Newark at this splendid spring festival in the neighboring town of Granville.

The following invitations were issued today:

Yourself and company are cordially invited to attend the twenty-second annual ball given by Taylor Lodge No. 175 B. of L. F. and E. at the A. I. U. hall, Tuesday evening, May 16, 1911. Music by Stevens' orchestra. This invitation must be presented at the door.

The Tuesday Bridge Club will be entertained on the club day at the home of Mrs. W. W. Neal in North Fifth street.

Mrs. Walter Harrison entertained the members of the Twentieth Century Club on Saturday afternoon at her home in East Main street. An enjoyable few hours were spent and a delicious dinner was served. The guests of the club were Mrs. D. H. Miller, Mrs. F. M. Howard, Mrs. J. V. Hilliard and Mrs. Chris Hermann.

English Currant Loaf—Mix together one quart of flour, a half teaspoon of salt, two teaspoons of baking powder, a cupful of cleaned currants, and two tablespoons of sugar, then rub in two large tablespoons of butter. Beat one egg, add one cupful and a quarter of milk and add to the first mixture to make a soft dough. Mold in one large or two small loaves and bake in a hot oven at once.

China Chilo—Cold roast mutton should be diced and placed in a saucepan with a good pint of green peas, one head of lettuce torn into shreds, sufficient gravy to moisten and a good seasoning. Simmer for half an hour and serve with an accompaniment of boiled rice.

COURT NEWS

In the case of the Granville Bank Company vs. Anna Milburn et al., the defendant has filed her answer, entering her voluntary appearance. And says in regard to the claims in the petition, that she sold the premises described in her gas lease to E. H. Everett and assigned the said lease and all her rights thereunder to Henry and Jennie Riggelman, and that she has never since had any interest in the rentals. She says that she makes no claim to the fund in controversy, and which has been paid by the clerk of courts to the Bank Company. She asks to be permitted to go hence with her costs.

Common Pleas Court.

The case of Isaac N. Mazelin, et al., vs. Tilden Mazelin, et al., is on trial to a jury in common pleas court. The suit is brought to contest the will of the late Francis N. Mazelin. Plaintiffs say that at the time of the making of the will the deceased was of unsound mind and memory; that he had not sufficient mental capacity to know and understand the extent, and the persons who were the natural objects of his bounty and was incapable of keeping these things in his mind long enough to form a rational judgment in regard to them. Plaintiffs ask that the will be declared invalid.

The allegations of the plaintiffs are denied by the defendant's.

In the case of L. B. Marvath vs. Mary Webber, et al., decree rendered against L. B. Marvath for $262.75. A suit to determine amount of rents and profits which Marvath received as administrator. Appeal bond fixed at $50.

Emma Spicer, et al., vs. Christian Phillips, a suit brought to set aside deeds made by Miss Lonniss for real estate situated near Pataskala in this county, on the ground that she was mentally incapable of transacting ordinary business, or to make the deeds in question. Decree setting aside the deeds. Notice of appeal Bond $50 in each of the two cases.

L. E. Wolfe vs. Mutual Benefit Life Association; a suit upon an insurance policy brought by the administrator against the insurer. Judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the Insurance company for $153.36.

Ellis Jones vs. W. W. Rugg, leave given to answer in ten days.

WEDDING RINGS AND GIFTS

For the sake of a matrimonially inclined friend, we dropped into Haynes Bros., the well known jewelers, at 7 North Park Place, to inquire what is the absolutely correct wedding ring. Mr. Haynes informs us that the Tiffany wedding ring is the thing—the thick and narrow ring—a revival of the fashion of our great grandparents' days; and he showed us these in a great variety of sizes.

Diamonds, as the favorite engagement ring, never go out of fashion and with the advent of the wedding season, Mr. Haynes says their diamond department is now in special prominence and their array of these glittering gems was surely alluring.

I was interested in wedding gifts and I found the scope for selections in this store so large as to make the choice of a wedding gift at once satisfying and enjoyable. Outside of the extensive line of cut glass and handsome silver and brass, there are necklaces, La Vallieres, brooches, bracelets, rings, ear rings—all equally well represented, and the prices very moderate.

GERMAN ROYALTY VISITING LONDON

London, May 15.—Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and the kaiserine, Prince Joachim and five carloads of German notables and attendants arrived here this afternoon for tomorrow's unveiling of the memorial of the late Queen Victoria, the kaiser's grandmother. King George, Queen Mary, the prince of Wales and a host of English notables met them at the station. As the kaiser's visit is considered purely private, there was no guard of honor or military display. Police manned the route of the drive to the palace. A crowded entertainment program has been arranged to cover the kaiser's stay.

It's all right to bet on the underdog if you are reasonably sure he is going to get on top.

Some people can't help making money any more than other people can help losing it.

OBITUARY

MRS. SARAH ELLEN TAYLOR.

Mrs. Sarah Ellen Taylor, widow of the late J. L. Taylor, a former well known resident of Newark, died at the home of her son, Milton Taylor, at the Hotel Jackson, this city, Monday morning at 8:26 o'clock, after an illness of some time with the ailments incident to advanced age, she being 76 years old at the time of her death. The deceased was a daughter of John and Margaret McMullen and had lived in Newark all her life, her husband having passed away about 15 years ago. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Fred Kussmann and Mrs. V. V. Overturf of this city, and Mrs. Theodore Mock of Big Rapids, Mich. She is also survived by nine grandchildren. She is the last of her original family.

The time of holding the funeral will be announced later.

MRS. MARY C. LEES BARROWS.

WILD WEST SHOW HERE ON MAY 18

When the Young Buffalo Wild West Show appears in Newark on Thursday, May 18, there will be found in the canvas enclosed arena the greatest aggregation of wild west celebrities ever before gathered at one time. Col. Seaver has spared neither time nor money to make this show the greatest show on earth in reality, not fiction.

At various times during the action of the show there will be found more noted people than old P. T. Barnum ever hoped for in his palmy days.

For instance, when Colonel Seaver signed Annie Oakley, Captain Bogart, Curtis Lisbon and Col. Stevens, he thought that he had a combination that could not be beaten, but to make this array of sharpshooters even stronger, he is negotiating for Miss Nettie Gordon, a 17-year-old girl, who is said to be a wonder and who will join the show through personal friendship for Colonel Seaver.

Besides these there will be Ambrose Means, the hero of the African jungles and the first man to rope a lion; Fred Burns, the best informed man on lassoing in the world, better known as the "king of the rope"; Montana Jack, Prairie Rose, Maud Allen and many other notables.

Then there are the Cossacks; daring riders of the Russian steppes, sun-tanned Rurales from old Mexico; cowboys from almost every western state, and the biggest tribe of Indians ever seen with a wild west show.

HIGHLY COMPETENT MAN FOR THE NEW BOARD OF CONTROL

In its news columns the Columbus Dispatch of Sunday says:
"Governor Harmon is looking about for four strong men to appoint on the new board of control which will manage the various state institutions. This board will take charge in August.
It is understood that one of the four members will be a superintendent of one of the state hospitals.
"The Governor has not signed up the bill creating the new board, but he is expected to do so during the coming week. There will be two Democrats and two Republicans on the board, and each member will receive an annual salary of $5,000. The board will have a number of assistants to appoint."
Among the applicants for one of the positions the name of Dr. H. C. Eymann of the Massillon State Hospital, has been favorably mentioned. Dr. Eymann possesses qualification of a high degree for the discharge of the duties of this board and he would give the state ideal service as one of its members. Not only does Dr. Eymann, by long experience possess the knowledge of the needs of the state's institutions, but as Superintendent of the Massillon Hospital for the past twelve years he has had intimate connection with and supervision over the construction of the splendid buildings and modern equipment that characterize this model hospital. His appointment would be highly popular and beneficial to the state and the success of the Central Board method of administration.

What Free List Bill Is.
Upon close view the "farmers' free list" bill becomes a mighty interesting measure. It untaxes many articles the farmers use, but it means about as much to all other consumers. It puts too articles of common use on the free list and it is estimated that it will save the buying public some $300,000.

The measure won't hit the revenues hard, either. The tariff is nearly prohibitive on the 100 articles concerned, so that the custom houses get only $1,500,000 from this source.

Sign of the Times.

A remarkable vote for the United States senate was recorded when the resolution to bring about the direct election of senators was made the unfinished business and thereby given precedence over all other measures.
Sixty-five senators voted on the side of the general proposition to five against. Every Democrat and every progressive Republican present voted in the affirmative. This does not mean that the fight over direct elections has been won outright. But it does mean that the great majority of the tory senators have learned that they cannot persistently resist public sentiment and hope to retain their seats. No one believes that the great majority of tory senators who voted with the progressives wanted to vote as they did. They were prompted solely by a realization that the public demands a change in the method of electing senators, and that further defiance of the public would but hasten effective public resentment.

It now appears that there are headquarters for professional grangers in wall street, under the management of a firm of attorneys located in that fertile farming region, who are active in the fight against Reciprocity in behalf of the Trusts.

Debates in the Senate are occasionally worth while. One has just developed the fact that the low rates of wages in Canada, which were being contrasted with wages in this country for the purpose of creating opposition to reciprocity, were wages with board, and making the necessary allowance it was shown that the compensation of labor was practically the same in the Union and the Dominion. Cummins of Iowa, Republican Insurgent, and Smoot of Utah, Republican Regular, became convinced of this, and admitted the practical equality of compensation of labor in the two countries.

The St. Albans Pledge.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
In old Vermont there is a town named St. Albans. From that town nearly a hundred years ago came a number of families who settled in Licking county, and, in order to make the new locality more homelike, they gave to the township in which they lived the name St. Albans. The Vermonters who came to Ohio were of the first quality of citizenship. They brought much good with them, but they left some behind. A part of that good is to be found in the following pledge which has been circulated in the Vermont town for signatures:
"Every lifted flower, every blossoming shrub, every spreading tree is a song of life, an inspiration to right living, a bit of nature's grace and beauty in our daily walk.
"Every perfect path, every verdant lawn, every well-kept street is a pathway of peace, a meadow of praise, a pattern pleasing to the sense of sight.
"Believing in the gospel of good things, I pledge myself to beauty and to keep beautiful the landscape from my upper window. The four sides of my habitation shall be without offense to the senses of my neighbor, or the stranger within sight. The way before my door, my neighbor's door or the throughfare of trade, I will not abuse or put to unworthy use. In every way consistent with my station and citizenship, I will encourage municipal cleanliness by word and example. I will help to make St. Albans." That pledge is second only to the oath of the Athenian youth "never to

UNCLE WALT
The Poet Philosopher.
Last year, when summer was on the I left the broiling town, its weary stretch of pavements and its buildings gray and brown, and wandered in the leafy woods, afar from strife and care, remote from all the carking things which drive men to despair. Oh, some may like the roar of wheels, the noise of busy mart, but in the woods I find the peace that soothes a troubled heart. The splendid majesty of trees makes human pomp seem vain; the music of the swaying boughs beats any organ's strain; and every wind that fans your brow and sighs to you of rest, is sweeter than the frankincense of Araby the blest. I wandered in the wondrous woods where nature's hymns are sung, and lost the burden of my years, for all the world seemed young, and all the little griefs and hates, mean thoughts and ugly word, and every phase of city life seemed idle and absurd. You wash your soul of ugly stains and dirt and kindred goods, when you're communing with the trees, deep in the virgin woods. Yet even there man will intrude, and change your smiles to groans. A jay policeman ran me in and taxed me twenty bones.

SPLENDID WORK OF DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS TO DATE

By CLYDE H. TAVENNER.
Washington, May 15.—In six weeks
the Democratic House of Representatives has passed more progressive and anti-trust legislation than the Republicans passed in 14 years' administration of that branch of congress.

The achievement up to date includes the passage of a bill providing for the publicity of campaign contributions before instead of after elections; the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people; reciprocity with Canada and the farmers' free list bill, with other similar legislation to follow promptly.
Agitation for much of this legislation has been going on for years. The Republicans heard the demand of the people for relief, but could not enact such legislation as has been passed by the Democratic House because they had for years been receiving enormous campaign contributions from the tariff trusts and other interests which are opposed to progressive legislation of the character passed by the Democrats.

The Republicans have not only been obliged not to interfere with the monopolies and profits of the tariff trusts, but because of having accepted campaign funds from the great corporations, they have been practically compelled to extend to them immunity from investigation and prosecution.

More than a score of resolutions providing for the investigation of the steel trust, the sugar trust and the other big industrial combines were introduced in every session of congress while the Republicans were in power. These resolutions, one and all, were referred to committees that had been especially packed by Speaker Cannon with men friendly to special privilege, with the result that all such resolutions died in committee.

Now it is different. For the first time since the trust question has been acute, the House of Representatives has an anti-trust majority.

The result is that the big committees are manned by men who are free to go ahead and investigate, and if the evidence warrants, to take the proper steps toward bringing about the prosecution of illegal combinations in existence in restraint of trade.

For the first time in a good many years the control of the United States will be the scene of honest investigation of the big industrial trusts.

Therefore it has been impossible for the government to control the trusts, because the trusts controlled the government. Now it is to be determined whether the government of the people or special privilege shall occupy the saddle.

Dividing the population roughly into children, adults and old people, the proportion of children is increasing, that of adults increasing, and that of old people stationary.

DENIZENS OF GRANVILLE ARE UP WITH SUN

Take Advantage of Fine Weather and Hike Into the Country—Mothers' Day Observed.

Granville, May 15.—Quite a number of Granville's young people, who are enthusiastic believers in fresh air and plenty of wholesome outdoor exercise, are taking advantage of these beautiful mornings to take long hikes out into the country.
They generally walk several miles and then stop at some farm house, where they are always welcome, and take breakfast. The man or woman either, who has cultivated the habit of the daily walk has minimized the chances of falling a victim to a good many different ills; and those who have not yet got into the habit cannot do better than to begin right away. The young men and the young ladies of the college, especially, are great believers in the benefits to be derived from this habit, and very often you will see a dozen or more of them far out on a lonesome country road, long before the sun is up. Every day a short walk should be taken, and the distance, when feasible, may be increased with advantage till tramps of ten miles or more are indulged in without fatigue.

"Mothers' Day" was generally observed in Granville Sunday, and the white carnation was very conspicuous, nearly everyone having one of the beautiful flowers in the lapel of his coat. In the churches "Mothers' Day" and all that it means, was one of the principal features of the sermons. The observance of the second Sunday of May, is certainly one of the prettiest tributes of modern times. This is the day that men of all nationalities and orders and walks of life and in all climes, from the humblest to the peasant, to the ruler of the land, from the brawny armed laborer to the captain of industry and from the most degraded criminal to the highest church dignitary, all meet on the same plane and turn back through yester-years to the recollections of their mothers' aiding influence and unite in revering her memory. The beautiful custom was inaugurated a few years ago by Miss Anna Jarvis, who in her world wide appeal asked that men observe the day by wearing a white flower in the lapel of their coats, the emblematic blossom being the white carnation where procurable.

It might be of interest to the students of Denison University to learn that hereafter college students cannot vote in a town where they are attending college, unless they intend to make that place their permanent home. The Plummerock bill, with but a single amendment, has passed the house and contains this clause: "Upon the announcement of a student in a college town that he expects to make that place his future home, he may be permitted to vote, but otherwise he must return to his own home, or lose his vote. The amendment which was offered by Russell, Democratic floor leader, makes the law apply to all transient residents.

Granville people are making arrangements to put the town in good shape for the coming Masonic celebration and the commencement of Denison University. Hundreds of strangers will be in the old town on these occasions and Granville people want to have the town at its best.

Wednesday, May 17, is "clean-up" day. Memorial Day comes on May 30 and on June 2 and 3 the Masons will celebrate their centennial. Following this comes commencement week, and a home-coming of old students. Arrangements are making to have Granville gaily decorated on all these occasions.

Sunday was a beautiful day, the weather being of a kind that all could enjoy an outing. The streets of Granville were lively with autos while many people wended their way to the hills about the village, nearby wood lots and the banks of streams to gather wild flowers. Livery rigs were at a premium. A large number of the members of the Methodist church went down to Newark in the morning and evening to attend the services incident to the dedication of the Methodist church. It was really the first Sunday for many months that the atmosphere was warm enough for people to enjoy out-of-door exercises and recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Harris, formerly well known people residing a short distance west of Granville, but who have been making their home in Colorado for a number of years, have been visiting old-time friends and relatives in this vicinity during the past week. They left for Marion, O., Saturday, and will make a short visit there before returning home.

The members of the Kappa Phi Sorority are planning a reunion, to be followed by a house party at Buckeye Lake for commencement week. Among the girls who are expected to be here for the event are Dee Shuman, Lee Porter, Elizabeth
Ford, Sue Theobald, Bernidene Hull, Kathleen Simms, Alma Polk and Addie Tudor.

Miss Carrie Holler, a charming young woman of Portsmouth, O., after a short visit here with her friend, Miss Jessie Williams, returned home Saturday.

Fruit growers report that the fruit is not much damaged yet, although we have had some very severe frosts the first few days in May. Should there be no more killing frosts we may expect a bountiful crop of apples and peaches in the country especially in the vicinity of Granville.

Now is the time of year when the hoe and garden rake come into requisition.
Mr. E. S. Reed has traded his property on West Main street to Mr.
Robert McCann, for his sixteen acre place on Centerville, formerly owned by Mr. A. M. Nichol. They have already moved onto the farm, which is one of the best on the Newark and Granville road.

Time to get out the screens and keep the flies under subjection.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jarvis and little son, Walter, of near Monroe-ville, who have been visiting here for some days, have returned home.

The Granville high school alumni banquet will be held in the Presbyterian church parlors on Thursday evening, June 8. The committee consists of Misses Hoover, Gertrude Wright, Bess Howe, Wilkin Jones,
Homer Holler and Payson Linnell.

In view of the one hundredth anniversary of Center Star Lodge of Masons, to be held here in a few weeks, it is of interest to know that the Masons first met in what is now the Chas. Psi Delta Society house.
The spring in that yard was known as the town spring, and has always been important in the town life.

A 60-year-old farmer of Maine took his first street car ride the other day. And (much as we hate to hurt the feelings of the jocosmiths) he never owned an automobile.

MOTHERS' DAY OBSERVED IN ALL CHURCHES

Sunday was observed in all the churches of the city as Mothers' Day and services coincident with the day were held. The white carnation is accepted as the emblem of the sentiment of the day and the local florists, although especially prepared for a large demand for the white bloom were insufficiently stocked to supply the demands.

All the flower dealers of the city had their supply exhausted by 10 o'clock Sunday morning and it was impossible to secure a white carnation in the city. The custom was first inaugurated about five years ago and every new anniversary sees a greater attention paid to its general observance.

RHEUMATIC MEN.

Have You Heard of Rheuma, the Cure That Evans' Drug Store Guarantees?

There is no reason on earth why any man should continue to allow rheumatism to torture his body or cripple his limbs, when Rheuma, the new discovery, costs but 50 cents a bottle, and is guaranteed to free the system from the grip of merciless Rheumatism or money back.

It's a pretty broad statement to make publicly, but Rheuma has cured so many hundreds of cases and cured it so easily and speedily that we know failure is almost impossible.

Get a bottle of Rheuma today. The first dose will start to dissolve the poisonous Uric Acid and drive it from the blood and joints. Evans' drug store guarantees it. Mail orders filled by Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Write for free trial bottle.

For indigestion or stomach misery of any kind, there is no remedy that equals English Maltine. 25 cents at Evans' drug store or mailed by Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

The invitation from Rev. L. C. Sparks, pastor of the First M. E. church, to attend the lecture of Rev. H. D. D., having been accepted, the members of the Corps will meet at the Five Points grocery and proceed in a body to the church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The subject, "The Boys of '61 to '65, by One of Them," will be entertaining and inspiring to the Woman's Relief Corps Auxiliary, to G. A. R.

The department president of Ohio, Lulu F. Huffman, has sent general orders to state corps, the membership of which is now 12,512. She says: "It is fitting that under the arching blue in the bright days of May we should cover the resting place of our honored heroes with the brightest blooms of the May-time."

President Ella McDermott of Lemeret Relief Corps will arrange the incomplete committees for Memorial Day and superintend the preparation of bouquets for decoration of soldiers' graves. All Relief Corps members will assist in this annual tribute to our soldiers whose memory shall ever be revered and held sacred by this organization.

QUICKER RUN TO PACIFIC COAST

Half a business day will soon be cut off from the Chicago-San Francisco time of the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific San Francisco Overland Limited, enabling that train to make the trip in 48 hours.

"This annihilation of distance," said J. C. Stubbs, director of traffic of the Union Pacific today, "which will be accomplished upon Sunday, June 28, is the initial step toward realizing to the travelers using the Union-Pacific system the advantages made possible by the vast sums expended in improving our roadbed, in installing electric block-signal protection, in double-tracking, betterment of power and equipment, etc."

"Time is money, and the clipping of four and a half hours from our schedule is in the nature of a dividend to the traveling public, which we believe all travelers, especially business men will appreciate, since the increase in speed is made without any decrease in the comfort of travel."

BIBLES FOR THE GIDEONS

At a recent meeting of the Ministers' conference it was decided at the suggestion of the Gideon organization to take up collections in all the churches of the city for the purpose of raising funds to be used in purchasing Bibles to be placed in the hotels of the city. The Gideons is made up principally of members of the United Commercial Travelers and have made this a country-wide movement.

Sunday was the day set for the local collections but owing to Mothers' Day, with special services and the dedication of the new M. E. church, the collections were not taken in all the churches. In the Second Presbyterian church the amount subscribed was $17.61. The matter will be taken up in other churches at a latter day.

PREDICTS WAR WITH JAPAN

Appleton, Wis., May 15.—That the army maneuvers in Texas and along the Mexican border are not to prepare for an invasion of Mexico or as a threat to that country, but to prepare for a war with Japan, is the report brought back from Texas by Captain H. E. Pomeroy, after spending two weeks with the army at San Antonio. Captain Pomeroy says the officers of the regular army, almost to a man, believe that this country will be involved in war with Japan in a comparatively short time and that Japan is making rapid preparations for the struggle.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — One Dog Washed; The Other Didn't

"HOW about a dog story tonight, daddy?" asked Evelyn. "You haven't told us one of them for a long time."

"Tell us about a dog that could fight," put in Jack.

"That's just like a boy," said Evelyn. "I want a story about a nice dog."

"Well," said daddy, "if I don't have a hard time trying to please you two little rascals at once no daddy ever had. But I think I can get out of my trouble by telling you about two little dogs I once knew, one of whom was as nice as Evelyn could wish and the other as tough as even Jack could desire."

"Goody," cried the children, and daddy began.

"My chum had two dogs named Bob and Betsy, who were close companions, but were as different in disposition as day and night, and that's a good comparison, for Bob was white as snow and Betsy as black as coal."

"Bob's hair was short and curly, and his tail stood up straight as a barber's pole, while Betsy's hair was long and straight, and she carried the plume on her tail so low that any one would think she was a street sweeper."

"But the greatest difference between them was when it came to bathing. Betsy positively hated to be scrubbed, while Bob loved it."

"That's exactly different from boys and girls," interrupted Evelyn.

"Humph," said Jack.

"Betsy," went on daddy, "would dodge a bath until she would become a disgrace to the family, and my chum would say, 'Well, Betsy, I guess I'll have to give you a scrub.' And then Betsy would disappear, and it would usually take her master an hour to find her. So he soon learned never to mention water in her presence, and when he wanted to bathe her he first locked her in the bathroom."

"But Bob was always in the water. When I say always I mean it, for he would go in the river a mile away every day in winter that he could get through the ice, and in summer he would make the long trip to the river two or three times a day."

"The funniest thing is that he had to be locked out of the bathroom, for if any one drew a tubful and went to another room for a minute when he or she came back there would be Bob swimming around with a grin all over his face."

"In the evenings when they would lie before the fire with their heads together Bob used to tell Betsy—at least we thought so—how she ought to be clean like him, but it never did any good."

"Ha, ha, ha," laughed Jack.

"You mean thing," said Evelyn.

GOOD NEWS FOR CATARRH SUFFERERS

So many hundreds of catarrh victims who have taken the HYOMEI treatment, have written thanking us for publishing our method of taking the HYOMEI vapor treatment in connection with the inhaler that we gladly publish it again.

The vapor treatment is especially recommended in stubborn cases of chronic catarrh of long standing, but remember that the inhaler should be used daily as usual.

This treatment takes five minutes time before going to bed. Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the result of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear; you will sleep better, and that stuffed up feeling will gradually disappear.

This method will break up the worst cold in the head in one night. A bottle of HYOMEI costs 50 cents at Evans' Drug store, who guarantees it. Complete outfit, which includes the little pocket inhaler, costs $1.00.

No stomach dosing; just breathe HYOMEI and cure catarrh and all diseases of the breathing organs. Free trial bottle by addressing Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Howdy Howe of Granville came to Newark today with his patriarchal beard and took his old schoolmate, Lou Kussmaul, to the ball game. Both declared they intended to "holler their heads off" for the Newark team.

Mrs. M. Brennan and family will leave today for Detroit, Mich., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Brennan was born and reared on Hudson avenue and has always lived in this city where she has a host of friends who will be sorry to learn of her departure.

A Vital Rule.

"A Baserunner Struck With a Batted Ball is Out."

And don't forget that little, self-needed, but vital rule of base-ball, "A baserunner struck with a batted ball is out." Watch the ball when it is hit. If it's a grounder, crossing your path, see that it doesn't hit your legs. Jump over it, wait for it to go by, do anything, but don't let it touch you. Put your head down and run! Don't try to see where the ball has gone, unless it is a fly. Depend on the coaches. They are there for that purpose. The fraction of a second it takes you to look over your shoulder for the ball may mean the difference between "safe" and "out." And don't run on high heels more than half-way—be sure the fly isn't going to be caught before you tear around the bases, unless, of course, there are two out, when it makes no difference, since if the ball is caught, the side is out, and if it is not caught, you may seem if you can beat the ball. Hence, with two out, run, whether the ball is a fly or a grounder.

When you run more than one base at a time, you must remember that the fraction of a second which you may lose or gain, enroute, by any calculation, speed, skill or the lack of them, means the difference between good and "bonehead" baserunning. The mere matter of turning the bag, that is, rounding the corner may have a vital importance.—From C. H. Claudy's "The Battle of Baseball" in June St. Nicholas.

KIENE BUYS RELEASE OF GOOD PITCHER

First Baseman Munn of Bridgeport, O., arrived in Newark Monday morning and will be given an opportunity to make good with the Newark team as guardian of the first sack.

Munn secured his release from the Muskegon team of the Michigan league and accepted terms with the Newark club because he preferred the article of ball playing in this circuit and wanted to be nearer home.

Another player, secured by purchase, will report tomorrow. He is Pitcher Kline of Cincinnati, who was bought from the Lexington club of the Blue Grass League. Kline was a holdout of the Lexington club, demanding more salary than the management would pay. Waivers were secured from the other clubs in the circuit, and owner Kiene succeeded in coming to an agreement with Lexington regarding the price set upon Kline's services.

He will leave Cincinnati tonight, and should arrive in time for tomorrow's game. If he is in condition, he may be sent to the box to show his worth. In 33 games he won 15, lost 10 and tied 3. His average was .600. In fielding he had 16 putouts, 49 assists and 4 errors, giving him a fielding average of .949. He batted .161.

Manager Lewis Suspended.

President Read, of the Ohio State league, Saturday night suspended for three days Manager Joe Lewis, of Marion. Lewis failed to comply with his instructions to keep away from the umpires. Goehler chased Lewis the other day and had to stand for considerable nagging. Managers have been warned to leave umpires alone every minute and Lewis' penalty is for his failure to comply with the rules.

SLUGGERS HAVE GOOD AVERAGES

The Ohio State league sluggers continue to pound the ball although the season is pretty well advanced. Charlie Rich of Lancaster continues to lead with an average of .460, having secured 30 hits in 65 times at bat in 19 games. Eugene of Lima with .391, Jones of Portsmouth with .390, Nesser of Lima with .369, Frank O'Leary of Springfield with .369, Owens of Chillicothe with .369, and Linderbeck of Marion are the others who are hitting above .300.

Newark batters dropped a little for the week, Rudolph with .338, Blue with .311, Saggan with .303 and McConnell with .281, are the hitters with the Newark team with the highest standing.

MUST PLACE TEAM WITHIN LIMIT

Owner Harry Kiene has received notice from Secretary Joe Carr of the Ohio State League directing him to cut down his team roster until his salary list is within the limit set by the league officials, viz. $1500. Mr. Kiene stated that the would comply with the request and that he would endeavor to see that the other teams of the league did the same.

"I expect to keep within that salary limit and I will try to see that others do the same," said Kiene this morning to the Advocate. It will work a hardship on most of the teams. They will have to keep the list of players trimmed to the limit and it will make it necessary for the managers to keep shy from the high priced players.

DECISION WAS REVERSED BY SUPREME COURT

Washington, May 15.—The supreme court today reversed the decision of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, sentencing Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, to jail for contempt of court in connection with the Bucks Stove Company injunction. The court ruled that the case was purely a civil case and should have been called for the finding of offenders only, and inasmuch as the litigants had patched up their differences, the entire case was dismissed.

This is regarded as one of the greatest legal victories ever won by union labor.

President Gompers of the A. F. of L. expressed supreme gratification today when informed of the supreme court decision in his case. He said he was naturally satisfied and pleased with the outcome, but was in a way dissatisfied, because the supreme court had not made a final ruling which would cover the point involved.

OPENING OF BUCKEYE LAKE PARK SUNDAY

Favored by beautiful weather, the formal opening of Buckeye Lake took place Sunday. On Saturday evening the orchestra was present for the first time and for the benefit of the cottagers who went to the lake to remain over Sunday there was dancing.

From early Sunday morning the regular and a large number of extra cars hourly were crowded with people desirous of spending a beautiful day at the most attractive summer resort. Columbus, Zanesville and many of the smaller adjoining cities sent large parties to the park. The grounds presented a nice appearance and the many improvements greatly facilitate the pleasures of those in attendance.

The most noticeable change is the changing of the location of the dining hall. This has been placed on the first floor of the hotel, taking the place formerly occupied by the Arcade for concessions. The dining room has been nicely fitted up with interior furnishings of mission, and is in charge of a corps of experienced waiters. The dance floor in the pavilion has been enlarged and a new floor has been laid. An eight-piece orchestra under the direction of Wm. Reynolds, with Prof. Schmidt as pianist, furnishes the music for the pavilion.

Two new piers have been erected. These piers are in stained wood to correspond in architecture with the hotel and the later erected buildings on the park grounds. They are brilliantly illuminated and at night add much to the beauty of the whole. One of the new piers replaced the old landing for the Del Fisher boat line. Manager W. D. Harris has removed his general and private offices to a new building at the end of the new pier and has a cosy little suite there. Assisting in the office are Bernard Smith and Miss Katherine Ketcher. The other pier is just opposite the dancing pavilion, and is for the use of the boats of the lake.

The one real bugaboo of the park, which it was hoped by many would be done away with still remains and that is the "bull pens" for loading of passengers on cars. On Sunday evening the men for Newark were packed to suffocation and when the cars pulled up the people use no judgment whatever. There were inefficient policemen on hand to control the crowds and any woman without an escort ran a great risk of being crushed in the doorways of the pen. As it was, several people were thrown to the ground and badly bruised. It would seem that a more convenient and less disagreeable way could be found to have passengers safely board the cars.

There have been many new cottages erected during the year, and the number of boats owned has been doubled. The number of people at the park was fair for the opening day and as the season progresses it will undoubtedly exceed the popularity of former seasons.

VETERANS

Will Be Independent of Soldiers' Homes in Case the Sherwood Bill Passes.

Washington, May 15. — Representative Sherwood, chairman of the committee on invalid pensions, has had figures prepared which show that the gross cost to the government of his service pension bill, which the committee has agreed to consider, will be $32,000,000 for the first year. That is, it would be necessary to add this much to the rolls, allowing the full amount to those whose services come within the provisions of the measure.

It is estimated, however, that at least $4,000,000 annually will be cut off this amount by reason of the fact that soldiers, who at the present time have incomes of $1000 or more, are made ineligible for increase under the measure. This will reduce the necessary expenditure to $28,000,000. There will, however, be a further material saving which cannot now be estimated. It is provided that those pensioners who received $25 or $30 under the bill shall not be permitted to remain at soldiers' homes without paying for their board.

In fact the bill is calculated to give a larger number of men sufficient income to enable them live outside of homes. This will mean a material saving in the cost of maintaining the bill.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SARAH MULLIS, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

DANIEL S. AMBACH

FORMERLY OF THIS CITY, FOUND DEAD IN CHAIR AT COLUMBUS OFFICE.

Head of Wholesale Millinery Establishment and Leaves an Estate Estimated at $100,000.

Columbus, O., May 15.—Dead in his chair at his office, the body of Daniel S. Ambach was found at the wholesale millinery establishment of D. S. Ambach & Company, 46 West Spring street, last evening by the night watchman when he went on duty at 7 o'clock. Coroner Hanes was summoned. He said that death had taken place several hours before. The body was taken to the R. E. Jones undertaking establishment to be prepared for burial.

Death, which was ascribed to heart failure, followed an illness of a couple of weeks. Ambach was never married and has lived for the last 12 years above what is now the Leachman saloon at 6 East Broad street. He was about 60 years old. Even his nearest associates did not know his age.

Ambach came here from Newark about 35 years ago. He engaged in various mercantile enterprises, first in the clothing business and then the millinery business. He was the predecessor of the present Union Clothing Company. Besides his store in Spring street, he had a branch store in New York.

This office is in charge of a nephew David Kohl. Another nephew, Joseph Kohl, is in the jewelry business here. These are the only relatives known. Ambach is supposed to have been quite well-to-do. He is believed to have left property worth at least $100,000.

It was in connection with the worth of his property that he achieved considerable newspaper notoriety about 15 years ago. He was alleged to have been approached by an assessor and told that for a suit of clothes and some other considerations his property would be listed at a low valuation. Ambach declined to become a party to such an arrangement. The incident was a nine-days' wonder.

Ambach was a Mason and the members of that organization probably will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Dan Ambach is well known in Newark, especially by the older residents. Away back in the sixties and the early seventies he with his brother, David, conducted one of the leading clothing stores in this city, his place of business being located in the room now occupied by Wm. Christian, on Third street. Mr. Ambach had many friends in the city and throughout the entire country, and conducted a big business for those times.

Mr. Frank Downey, a former well known resident of Newark, had charge of the merchant tailoring department of the store.

The deceased was a member of Newark Lodge No. 96 F. & A. M., Warren Chapter No. 6 R. A. M., and Bigelow Council No. 7 R. S. M.

PLAYGROUND BILL IS PASSED BY OHIO LEGISLATURE

The bill introduced by Senator Watkins in the Ohio senate a short time ago at the request of Mr. F. L. Beggs, chairman of the Newark Board of Trade's Playgrounds Committee, was passed by the house of representatives late Monday afternoon. After the passage by the senate recently, the bill went to the house, where Representative W. D. Fulton took charge of it. Mr. Fulton secured its passage Monday and the measure now goes to Gov. Harmon for his signature. The bill, which has passed both branches of the legislature, gives city school boards the right to buy or lease lands for playgrounds for children. This action is the first step toward the establishment of suitable children's playgrounds in Newark.

OPPOSING NINE-HOUR BILL.

Columbus, May 15.—Opponents of the woman's nine-hour workday bill are making a big fight to kill it when it comes up in the house tomorrow. Big delegations from Portsmouth, Piqua and other towns have brought women factory workers with them to protest against the bill. The women buttonhole representatives and others and talk against the bill.

SPORTING EDITOR FROM CHILlicothe WITNESSED GAME

E. C. Hall, sporting editor of the Scotto Gazette was a visitor in the city Sunday and witnessed his team go down to defeat from the press box. Mr. Hall doubted the judgment of Umpire Goehler in calling Wolf out at the plate in the eighth. It is true it was a close one and had it been decided in the runner's favor the game might have gone to the visitors.

Mr. Hall is one of the best known sport writers on the circuit and furnishes the Advocate readers accounts of the games when the Molders play in Chillicothe. He predicts a successful season for the Ohio Staters and thinks Newark has a team that will be well up in the running in the near future.

The same itinerant performed the religious duties of the counties of Licking, Fairfield, Knox, Muskingum, Coshocton, Franklin, Ross and Piqua, and it is probable that the newly organized town of Newark was included in his ministrations; but here again, as in the case of his immediate successors, Revs. James Irwin and John Meeks, we must rely on traditional reports, which speak of irregular services held under a tree on the public square, or in the cabins of religiously inclined settlers. Mr. Quinn, leaving this circuit early in 1806, makes mention of "a congregation of from fifteen to thirty persons," which he left in Newark. There was at that time no church building in the town, and tradition again suggests several places of meeting. Mr. Quinn's class is supposed to have met at the cabin of Abraham Wright, an early justice of the peace; but mention is also made of a one room log cabin, standing nearly opposite the present site of the High school building, used as a school house, and also as a church when occasion required. A little later, services were held in the upper story of the market house by both Methodists and Presbyterians, until the former moved to a frame building between First and Second streets, erected by Mr. Goodridge to serve as church and school house. In 1806, a wonderful impetus was given to the church by the preaching of Rev. Peter Cartwright, a Methodist itinerant preacher of wide fame as an apostle of the wilderness. It is a little bewildering to find that tradition here gives accounts of two classes, each supposed to have composed the first organized Methodist church of the town. The one of which Rev. Mr. Quinn speaks, seems to have been originally composed of James Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, James Stewart, Jr., Mr. Couch, Jane Wilson, Martin Lincoln, Aaron Baker, Mrs. Baker, and Benjamin Wilcox. Contemporary tradition speaks of another class organized and preached to by Rev. Mr. Cunningham. The members of this congregation were Nancy and Sarah Moore, Margaret Farmer, Elizabeth Rankin, Jane Goodridge, Sidney Denman, Mrs. Coulter, Catherine Little and Mrs. Evans, and the first meetings were held in the court house.

This traditional history of the church continues until 1823, when the present church was formally organized. In January of that year, a petition was circulated for the securing of funds for the erection of a "Methodist meeting house." The effort was "highly successful," resulting in a total of seven hundred and seventy-one dollars, a few rich and generous subscriptions running as high as forty-five and fifty dollars. On August 5, 1823, the pastor, Rev. Jacob Hooper, appointed the first official board, consisting of James Hayes, James Bramble, Thomas Atherton, Thomas Parker, John Cunningham, John Evans, Thomas Taylor, John Parker. The next day, August 6, the board paid $30 for a lot, which included the ground occupied by the recently occupied church building, and also the lot south of it, on which the first structure was erected, crowning a high elevation which has since been razed. The building complete cost $1,025 66; at the time of the dedication $24 42 was still due, and for this the trustees gave their notes. In 1829 the church had sixty-nine members, and a Sunday school, of which Milton Moore was superintendent.

The next enterprise was the circulation of a popular subscription for a bell, to be hung in the Methodist cupola, but used for all town purposes. The bell, bought with the $109 thus secured, was in 1874 transferred to the tower of the later church building, where it has hung until the present time, occasionally sending out a voice well known and well loved by the older people of the town.

In 1847, the building was remodeled by cutting down the hill and adding a basement room where school was held, the teacher being Miss Sarah Williams—the Aunt Sarah Brown—of later years, whose recent death brought sorrow to hundreds who live to bless the long years of her labor of love for her city and her church.

In the same year, the membership of the church was divided into an eastern and a western charge, the eastern charge purchasing a frame building on East Main street, near First. After a separate existence for about sixteen years, the two congregations were re-united in 1861, and plans immediately begun for the erection of a new brick edifice, for which foundations were laid in 1863. Levi Cunningham, pastor March 29, 1874, the new church was dedicated by Bishop Walden, his theme being "Salvation by the Life of Christ." The total value of the church property at that date was $30,000. Of the official board of that date, the last survivors, Mr. Dorsey Maxwell of Granville, and Mr. John Fyfe of Iowa, have died within the past two years. Of the members who went from the first church to the second, in 1863, only some half dozen are still living. Among the oldest in years of membership are Mr. O. Bourner, Mrs. Mary J. Suter, Mrs. Narcissa Connel, Mrs. Anna Green, Mrs. Anna Howell, all of whom have been active members of the church for a half century or more.

On the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day, 1909, an open air service was held, and the corner stone for the new church structure laid. The official representatives of the church being Mrs. Anna Howell and Mrs. Ellen O'Bannon. Plans for the new structure were drawn by Mr. Vernon Reddin, architect, and under the supervision of Mr. Lester Redding, the building was immediately begun, and pushed rapidly forward. On Thanksgiving Day, 1910, just a year from the laying of the corner stone, the social rooms of the church were opened for use, and during the past week the work of building and furnishing was completed. In wisdom, the committee in charge of the building has planned largely, and the result of their labors is a structure and equipment that will answer every demand for purposes of sacred worship and social efficiency, both of which demands the modern church is bound to meet.

Artistically, the building is perfect in design and finish, the architectural plans being carried out to the last detail of the finishing and furnishing. The main audience room, planned to accommodate a congregation of fifteen hundred, with perfect acoustic qualities, is finished in a soft blending of brown and green tones, and is artistically a delight to the eye. Back of this is the Sunday school room, which with its well equipped primary department, can accommodate a thousand scholars. Opening from the balcony are the beautiful rooms designed for the use of the Woman's Guild, Choir room and pastor's studies complete the equipment of the church proper. In the basement are completely furnished social rooms, including dining room and kitchen, which have been in use for several months.

In the epoch-making history of the past five years, too much credit cannot be given the pastor, Levi C. Sparks, who has made himself a power in the work, not only of his own church, but of the city; while in every plan for advancement he has been loyally upheld by the trustees and stewards of the church, and by the officers of the various church organizations, including particularly the Sunday school, the Woman's Guild, and the Methodist Brotherhood.

The following exercises of the week, concluding the dedication exercises with the services of next Sunday, will give to the city of Newark a church equipment that for a century to come must be a power for good, and a monument to the integrity of the devoted consecration of a people whose will is to serve God.

WORK OF THE

WOMAN'S GUILD.

Probably the most noteworthy in the great efforts and sacrifices being made by the congregation of the First M. E. church to pay off the indebtedness on the splendid new edifice erected by them is the work of the Woman's Guild of the church.

This band of earnest women, when the new church first became a reality pledged themselves to raise the sum of $10,000 within a stated period of five years. Just two years have elapsed since the promise was made and $7,000 of the $10,000 has been realized. This great work was done by the united and personal efforts of the members of the guild. The organization was divided into 12 districts, each district under the superintendency of a leader. The means used to gain the end were varied. A number of suppers were given. The agency of periodicals were accepted and the commission turned over to the ever growing fund. Then many of the women made personal gifts of money.

So great is the enthusiasm of this band in its work that at Sunday's services the Woman's Guild pledged itself to raise still another sum amounting to $10,000, making a sum total of $20,000. The work of securing the second amount will not be started until the first sum has been wholly secured.
